Project Instructions

- When collecting trash;
 - Do not make bags too heavy
 - Do not drag bags to your site's trash pile
 - Double tie all bags
 - Place the trash in a pile close to the nearest street; away from motorists and pedestrians, but in clear sight for waste management to see
 - Be cautious of bulky items (such as tires, wood, auto parts)
 - Kick the item to make sure critters aren't underneath or around it
 - Place items next to the trash pile
 - If you come across tumbleweeds, or palm frons, please flatten them and place them under trash bags so that they do not blow away
 - If you find deceased animals, do not pick them up;
 - Call animal control at: 951.358.7387
- If you spot graffiti near your site, please call it in to the City of Riverside by dialing 311 – 951.826.5311
- If volunteers have any chronic health issues (i.e. respiratory problems, diabetes);
 - Notify your team leader
 - Do not overwork yourselves, and bring any necessary medication along with you
- First aid is located at KRCB Staging area
- In case of medical emergency, dial 911 and notify KRCB staff immediately
